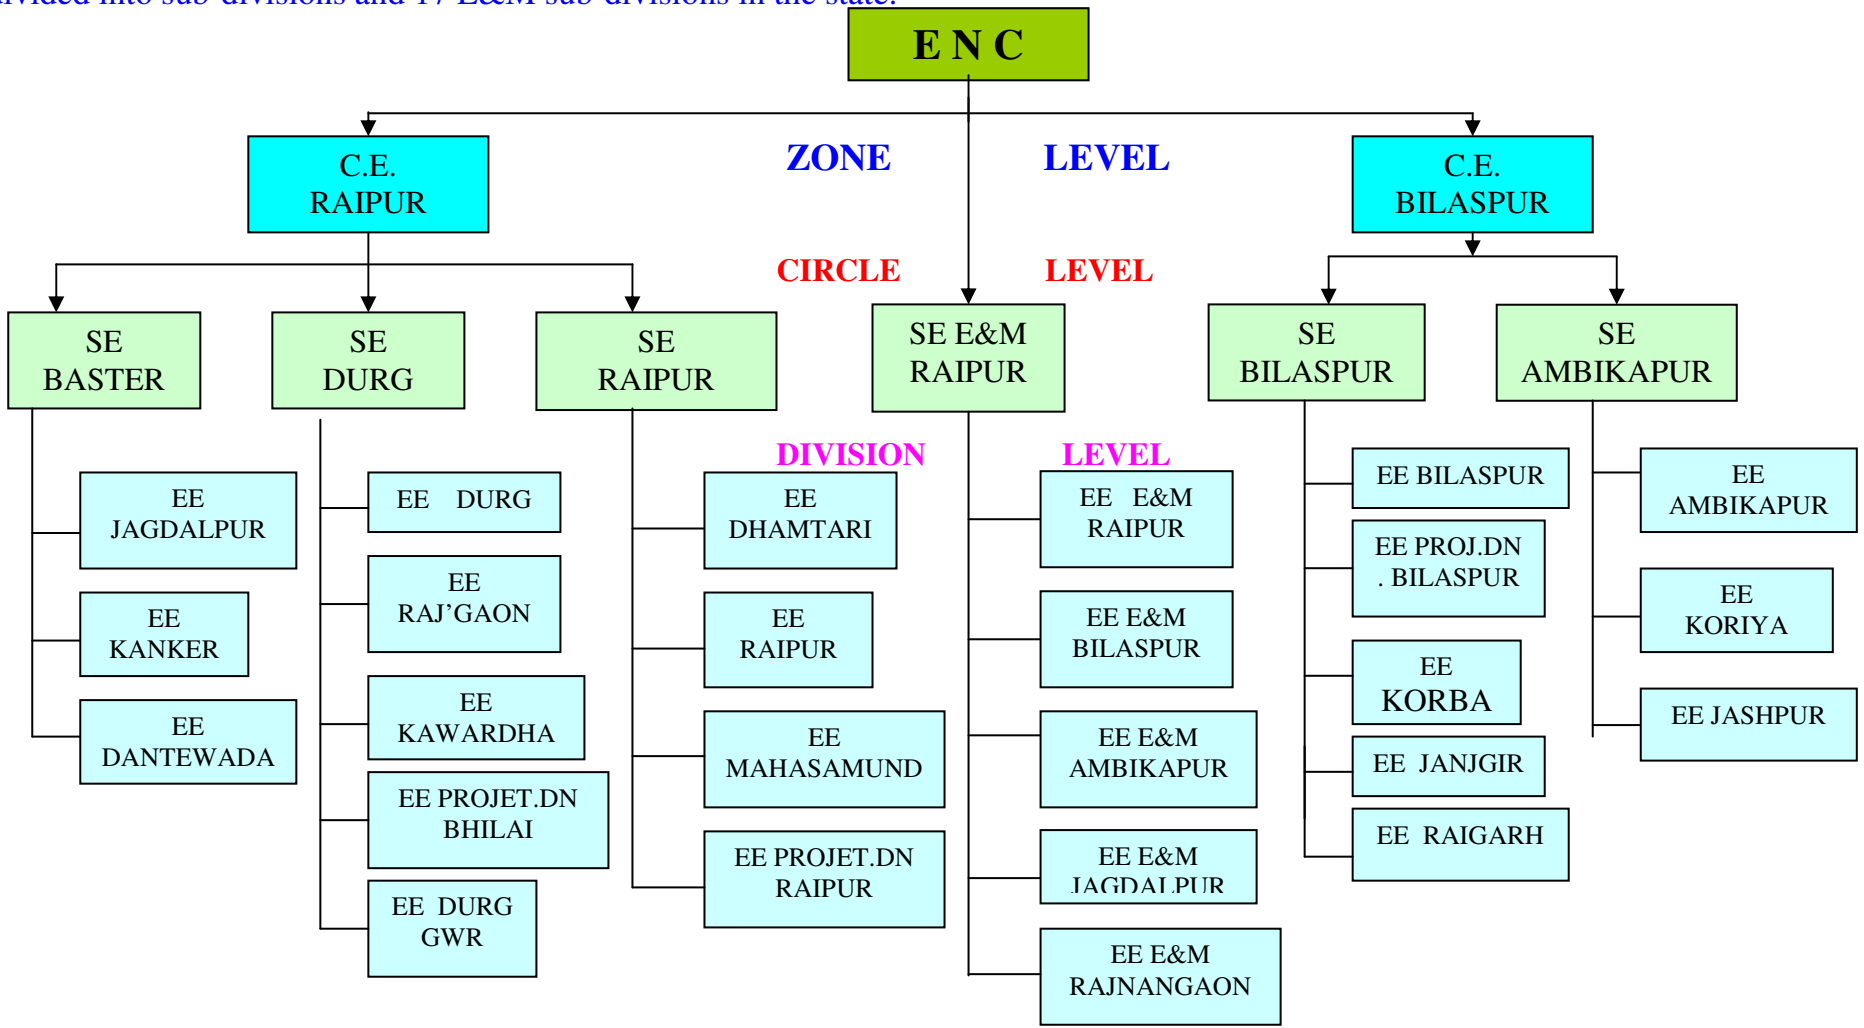
ORGANISATION CHART


As per existing set up, the Public Health Engineering Department is headed by the Engineer-In-Chief who in his office is assisted by 2 Superintending Engineers, 2 Executive Engineers and other technical and non-technical staff in his office.
There are two Zonal Offices at Raipur & Bilaspur headed by Chief Engineer. Who in his office is assisted by 1 Superintending Engineer, 1 Executive Engineer and other technical and non-technical staff in his Office.
There are 5 civil field Superintending Engineer posted at revenue divisions headquarters at Raipur, Bilaspur Jagdalpur, Ambikapur. Under the reorganized setup of the districts in Chhattisgarh each of 16 districts has one Civil Executive Engineer of department who looks after works related with water supply and sanitation programmes in respective districts with assistance of 74 Sub Divisions. In addition to these Executive Engineers there are 3 Civil Executive Engineers looking after various projects and water works with assistance of 07 Sub Divisions. There is one Ground Water Recharging Division at Durg looking after Ground Water Recharging activities. There are 5 E&M Executive Engineers posted for looking after drilling works and maintenance of machineries. The work of each division has further has been divided into sub-divisions and 17 E&M sub-divisions in the state.